

Free As A Bird

We may live so far apart
Across the ocean wide
But underneath the same old sun we sing.
If I could, I'd take your hand and journey by your side,
Celebrating all that life can bring.

*Free as a bird on the wing
Hear ev'ry voice start to ring,
Reaching out and crossing land and sea.
High on the breeze we fly, up where the eagles cry,
Reaching out and joining in harmony.*

We may speak a different language, come from different lands
And we may have a different point of view,
But we hold the future of this planet in our hands,
We can make it better, me and you.

*Free as a bird on the wing
Hear ev'ry voice start to ring,
Reaching out and crossing land and sea.
High on the breeze we fly, up where the eagles cry,
Reaching out and joining in harmony.*

Music can unite us, lift the spirit and the soul,
Feel its rhythm beat in ev'ry heart.
Music can excite us, it can heal and make us whole,
We can build a song with ev'ry part.

We can share a dream to make this world a place of peace
And we can reach to dry another's tears,
Showing understanding, giving hope that wars may cease,
With a smile, dispelling ev'ry fear.

*Free as a bird on the wing
Hear ev'ry voice start to ring,
Reaching out and crossing land and sea.
High on the breeze we fly, up where the eagles cry,
Reaching out and joining in harmony.*
