

Run Like The River

You're allowed to feel however you feel,
You don't always have to hide your tears.
Even if today doesn't go your way
I bet I'll get ya smiling ear to ear.

Whoa! Ev'rybody has their days
I know we can be ok
You don't have to be afraid.

When the rain falls down I promise I won't run,
Run like the river.
When the rain falls down I promise I won't run,
Run like the river.

I believe in you, you know what to do,
Be the hero that's like no-one else.
You've been here before, closing ev'ry door,
Happiness is what you owe yourself.

Whoa! Ev'rybody has their days
I know we can be ok
You don't have to be afraid.

When the rain falls down I promise I won't run,
Run like the river.
When the rain falls down I promise I won't run,
Run like the river.
