

SHINE

I write my story my own way;
I think about the person I can be someday.
I trust my heart to be my guide,
With dreams so bright that I can cast my fears aside.

We've come this far and still we know,
There's even further we can go,
When we lead with love and let it show!

Watch us shine, hear us roar, see us smile as we soar!
Feeling proud, feeling strong, feeling love for each other,
Knowing we belong.

Just like a firefly at night,
I travel through the dark by making my own light.
And when it's still too dark to see,
We'll join together and we'll shine in harmony.

And when our light begins to grow,
From miles away you'll see the glow,
When we lead with love and let it show!

Watch us shine, hear us roar, see us smile as we soar!
Feeling proud, feeling strong, feeling love for each other,
Knowing we belong.

We are the promises we make.
We are the dreams we have, the chances that we take.

Watch us shine, hear us roar, see us smile as we soar!
Feeling proud, feeling strong, feeling love for each other,
Knowing we belong.
